

We must strengthen media ownership rules to prevent large companies like Sinclair Broadcasting from controlling large segments of the public airwaves. Sinclair, in particular, is not acting in the public interest by, as one example, forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This media consolidation threatens to erode our democracy. The license renewal process needs to be more than a mere formality. Thank you.